

Proper Preface for Episcopal Relief & Development Sunday

For use especially during an Episcopal Relief & Development Sunday service, or any other time the Eucharist is celebrated with special intentions for the work of Episcopal Relief & Development. The celebrant may use this Proper Preface at the appointed time during The Great Thanksgiving.

Because in Jesus Christ our Lord you knit us together in love to strengthen communities, empower those who are poor, nourish those who are hungry, heal those who are sick and renew victims of disaster.