

A Rite for the Blessing of a Garden

Presider Blessed be the God of all creation:

People For in your goodness you make all things new.

Presider God be with you (or the Lord be with you).

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Gracious God, you open wide your hand and give of your goodness to all things living: Renew the face of the earth and increase the sustainable harvest of the world, that the land may bring forth enough for all, and your people may share justly and give honor to you; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

The presider or other appointed leaders from the congregation may then lead the People in prayer, using one or more of the following collects, as appropriate.

Lover of all you have made: Protect and sustain the creatures of our local habitat. Increase their well-being, watch over them with love, and give us wisdom to honor our kinship with them; through Jesus Christ, the first-born of all creation. Amen.

God, whose Spirit moved over the deep: We thank you for the gift of water. Bless the waters on the ground and under the ground, and the waters that fall from the sky, that this garden may flourish and bear good fruits; through Jesus Christ our savior. Amen.

God, who alone provides seed for the sower and bread for the eater, you have taught us to ask of you our daily bread: Bless the sowing of the seed this year, grant fertility to the soil, and strengthen the hands of the gardeners who till it, that through their labor your people may be nourished; through Jesus Christ, the bread of life. Amen.

Holy God, you have blessed our plowing and preparing of the ground: Protect what we planted in your name, and grant that working late and early, we and others may enjoy a fruitful harvest; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Presider and People then say

Holy One: Bless and protect this garden and all who keep it. Strengthen and uphold them in their labor, that these plants may be good fruit and our care for the earth may witness to your love and justice; in the name of the Holy and Undivided Trinity. Amen.

The Deacon or Presider may dismiss the People with these words

Deacon Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.
